

LCEF Congregational Representative Ministry

What is the LCEF Congregation Representative?

- A steward of the ministry of LCEF.
- A visible, local LCEF presence.
- An encourager toward Spiritually Responsible Stewardship.
- A herald of LCEF ministry stories.

The Principle Role of an LCEF Congregational Representative:

- Raise congregational awareness of the importance of LCEF's role in the overall mission and ministry of the LCMS.
- Inform and encourage members of the various opportunities for investing in, or giving to LCEF in support of the Great Commission, through your promotional efforts. Promotional resources may include:
 - Representative Resource Manual
 - LCEF's Web site - www.lcef.org
- Thank present, as well as past participants for supporting the mission and ministry of LCEF.

An LCEF Congregation Representative should have:

- A strong and growing personal relationship with Jesus.
- A firm belief in the importance of LCEF as a vital LCMS mission and ministry and the desire to demonstrate that belief as an active LCEF investor.
- An outgoing, teachable and caring personality
- Availability and willingness to attend circuit and district LCEF meetings.

The mission of the Lutheran Church Extension Fund is to support the Church in fulfilling its mission of sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ by being a Christ-centered servant of the LCMS, ensuring that the funds and services are available now and in the future.

Pray for the needs and blessings of their pastor, church workers, fellow members and the work of the ministry of LCEF; be it individually or in prayer groups.

Attend special congregational events as an LCEF representative.

Display LCEF promotional materials, distribute handouts, use "clips and fillers", offer to have occasional presentations to various groups, and host an annual LCEF Sunday.

Attend any circuit, regional, or district LCEF meetings or workshops to keep updated on upcoming promotional efforts.

